The Games of Life

Pastor Brian Greenleaf

1. What is the best video game you like to play or have ever played? What makes it so fun? What makes it so frustrating?
2. What caught your attention in this week's sermon? Was there something you had never heard before or something you had a question about?
3. Ephesians 4:17-32 is a very challenging passage because it hits home in so many areas.
 - Which "Old Life" habits do you struggle with since becoming a believer?
 - Which attributes have you found the most victory in?
 - Explain the battle between the "Old Life" and "New Life."
4. How can we lay aside the "Old Life?"
 - What practical ways can you wage war against those old self habits?
5. Paul ends this chapter with the challenge of replacing bitterness, meanness, anger, rage, harsh words, and a dislike for others with kindness, tenderheartedness, and forgiveness.
 - For which one of these do you need the power of the Holy Spirit the most?
6. Read Galatians 2:20.
 - What are ways you can daily die to self?

Pray about it: Meditate on God's Word (Ephesians 4:17-32) and this week's message

Adoration: What can I praise God for in light of what this teaches me?

Confession: What sin can I confess because of what this teaches me?

Thanksgiving: What can I thank God for in light of what He has done?

Supplication: What do I need to ask of God in order to grow in light of this?
