Sermon Talks

1. What caught your attention in this week's message? Was there something you had never heard before or something you had a question about?

2. How do people today try to justify their sins, similar to how some in Paul's time argued that sin could bring glory to God?

3. How do you respond when God's justice doesn't seem fair? How does Paul challenge our way of thinking in this passage?

4. In what ways have you personally experienced God's faithfulness, even when you have fallen short?

5. Paul says, "There is no one righteous, not even one" (v. 10). Why is it important to understand our sinful nature before we can appreciate the gospel?

6. How does our culture define "goodness" or "righteousness," and how does that compare to what Paul says in this passage?

7. Based on this passage, how would you explain the gospel to someone who believes they are "good enough" to go to heaven?

8. Paul says that boasting is excluded (v. 27). Why is pride dangerous when it comes to our faith?

9. How should knowing that our righteousness comes from faith in Jesus affect the way we treat others—especially those who struggle with sin?

Pray about it: Meditate on God's Word (Romans 3) and this week's message.

Adoration: What can I praise God for in light of what this teaches me?

Confession: What sin can I confess because of what this teaches me?

Thanksgiving: What can I thank God for in light of what he has done?

Supplication: What do I need to ask of God in order to grow in light of this?
